INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44*Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

I. (a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.

(b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)

(c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.C.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.

United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.

United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.

Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.

IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerks in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.

V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.

Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.

Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.

Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.

Multidistrict Litigation. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.

Appeal to District Judge from Magistrate Judgment. (7) Check this box for an appeal from a magistrate judge's decision.

VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553
Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service

VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.

Demand. In this space enter the dollar amount (in thousands of dollars) being demanded or indicate other demand such as a preliminary injunction.

Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.

VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.

CIVIL ACTION

Tacony Academy Charter School,
Santilli & thompson, LLC

NO.

Gerald Santilli and Stacy L. Cruise

In accordance with the Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan of this court, counsel for plaintiff shall complete a Case Management Track Designation Form in all civil cases at the time of filing the complaint and serve a copy on all defendants. (See § 1:03 of the plan set forth on the reverse side of this form.) In the event that a defendant does not agree with the plaintiff regarding said designation, that defendant shall, with its first appearance, submit to the clerk of court and serve on the plaintiff and all other parties, a Case Management Track Designation Form specifying the track to which that defendant believes the case should be assigned.

SELECT ONE OF THE FOLLOWING CASE MANAGEMENT TRACKS:

- (a) Habeas Corpus – Cases brought under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 through § 2255. ( )
- (b) Social Security – Cases requesting review of a decision of the Secretary of Health and Human Services denying plaintiff Social Security Benefits. ( )
- (c) Arbitration – Cases required to be designated for arbitration under Local Civil Rule 53.2. ( )
- (d) Asbestos – Cases involving claims for personal injury or property damage from exposure to asbestos. ( )
- (e) Special Management – Cases that do not fall into tracks (a) through (d) that are commonly referred to as complex and that need special or intense management by the court. (See reverse side of this form for a detailed explanation of special management cases.) ( )
- (f) Standard Management – Cases that do not fall into any one of the other tracks. (x)

Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan
Section 1:03 - Assignment to a Management Track

- (a) The clerk of court will assign cases to tracks (a) through (d) based on the initial pleading.
- (b) In all cases not appropriate for assignment by the clerk of court to tracks (a) through (d), the plaintiff shall submit to the clerk of court and serve with the complaint on all defendants a case management track designation form specifying that the plaintiff believes the case requires Standard Management or Special Management. In the event that a defendant does not agree with the plaintiff regarding said designation, that defendant shall, with its first appearance, submit to the clerk of court and serve on the plaintiff and all other parties, a case management track designation form specifying the track to which that defendant believes the case should be assigned.
- (c) The court may, on its own initiative or upon the request of any party, change the track assignment of any case at any time.
- (d) Nothing in this Plan is intended to abrogate or limit a judicial officer's authority in any case pending before that judicial officer, to direct pretrial and trial proceedings that are more stringent than those of the Plan and that are designed to accomplish cost and delay reduction.
- (e) Nothing in this Plan is intended to supersede Local Civil Rules 40.1 and 72.1, or the procedure for random assignment of Habeas Corpus and Social Security cases referred to magistrate judges of the court.

SPECIAL MANAGEMENT CASE ASSIGNMENTS
(See §1.02 (e) Management Track Definitions of the Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan)

Special Management cases will usually include that class of cases commonly referred to as "complex litigation" as that term has been used in the Manuals for Complex Litigation. The first manual was prepared in 1969 and the Manual for Complex Litigation Second, MCL 2d was prepared in 1985. This term is intended to include cases that present unusual problems and require extraordinary treatment. See §0.1 of the first manual. Cases may require special or intense management by the court due to one or more of the following factors: (1) large number of parties; (2) large number of claims or defenses; (3) complex factual issues; (4) large volume of evidence; (5) problems locating or preserving evidence; (6) extensive discovery; (7) exceptionally long time needed to prepare for disposition; (8) decision needed within an exceptionally short time; and (9) need to decide preliminary issues before final disposition. It may include two or more related cases. Complex litigation typically includes such cases as antitrust cases; cases involving a large number of parties or an unincorporated association of large membership; cases involving requests for injunctive relief affecting the operation of large business entities; patent cases; copyright and trademark cases; common disaster cases such as those arising from aircraft crashes or marine disasters; actions brought by individual stockholders; stockholder's derivative and stockholder's representative actions; class actions or potential class actions; and other civil (and criminal) cases involving unusual multiplicity or complexity of factual issues. See §0.22 of the first Manual for Complex Litigation and Manual for Complex Litigation Second, Chapter 33.

1. Jurisdiction of this Court arises under 42 U.S.C. §1983 and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1343(3) and 1367(a) (supplemental jurisdiction).

2. Jurisdiction of this Court for the pendant claims is authorized by F.R. Civ. P.18(a) and arises under the doctrine of pendant jurisdiction set forth in United Mine Workers v. Gibbs, 383 U.S. 715 (1966).

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 (b) and (c).

PARTIES

4. Lebowitz, an adult resident of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, brings this action to redress Defendants' conduct in conspiring to deprive her of her constitutional, statutory and common law rights when they terminated her employment with Defendant Tacony Academy Charter School ("Tacony") after she reported: (a) unlawful conduct on the part of Benjamin Randall ("Randall"), a "special education coordinator" at Tacony, which conduct Lebowitz reasonably believed placed a student at serious risk of physical and emotional harm; and (b) non-compliance with Individual Education Plans ("IEP") of special education students enrolled at Tacony, which Lebowitz reasonably believed was in violation of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act ("IDEA").

5. At all times material hereto, Lebowitz was a public employee under Pennsylvania's Charter School Law ("CSL"), 24 P.S. § 17-1702-A et seq.

6. Defendant Tacony, a public, nonprofit corporation governed by a Board of Trustees, operates a charter school existing and operating under Pennsylvania's CSL from 1330 Rhawn Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 19111. The School District in which Tacony operates is the School District of Philadelphia.

7. At all relevant times hereto, Defendant Tacony was a public employer acting by and through its directors, officers, trustees, board members, employees and/or agents, and was Lebowitz' employer.

8. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant Tacony received funds, directly and/or indirectly, by or through the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and/or a political subdivision authority, including the School District of Philadelphia.

9. Defendant Santilli & Thompson, LLC (Santilli & Thompson"), with principal offices located at 13000 Lincoln Drive West, Suite 302. Marlton, New Jersey, 08053, is a for-profit corporation that provides financial and educational consulting services to, among other entities, charter schools in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, including Defendant Tacony.

10. At all relevant times hereto, Defendant Santilli & Thompson acted, by and through its directors, officers, trustees, board members, employees and/or agents, as an agent for Defendant Tacony and supervisor and/or employer of Lebowitz.

11. Defendant Gerald L. Santilli ("Gerald Santilli"), the founder and head of Tacony and a Partner at Santilli & Thompson, was at all times relevant hereto, Lebowitz' supervisor and/or employer.

12. At all times relevant hereto, Santilli was an advisor to and/or decision-maker of Tacony's Board of Trustees and conspired with other Defendants to unlawfully terminate Lebowitz' employment.

13. Defendant Stacy L. Cruise ("Cruise"), Executive Director of Tacony, was at all times relevant hereto, Lebowitz' supervisor and/or employer and conspired with other Defendants to unlawfully terminate Lebowitz' employment.

FACTS

14. Plaintiff incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 13 of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

15. On or about June 2, 2009, Lebowitz was hired by Santilli & Thompson and Tacony as a school social worker / counselor.

16. Lebowitz' duties included, but were not limited to, crisis management, student programs and services, and participating as a member of students' IEP teams.

17. In performing her duties, Lebowitz learned that Tacony had not completed required 30-day "change of place" notices for students receiving special education services. The notices are sent to the parents of students receiving special education services.

18. On or about September 30 or October 1, 2009, Lebowitz sent an email to Ashley Redfearn-Neswick ("Redfearn-Neswick"), Dean of Students and Lebowitz' direct supervisor at Tacony, advising her that the 30-day change of place notices had not been completed as required.

19. In response to her email, the Principal and CEO of Tacony, Rene Garner ("Garner"), contacted Lebowitz, stating merely that Tacony was in full-compliance with the required change of place notices.

20. Subsequent to and on the heels of reporting the above-referenced compliance issue, on or about October 14, 2009, Lebowitz observed Randall physically dragging and restraining a student on the floor in the school's hallway.

21. Immediately following the above-described incident, Lebowitz reported to Redfearn-Neswick what she had observed Randall doing with the student. Based on information and belief, Redfearn-Neswick, in turn, reported Lebowitz' observations to Garner and to Cruise.

22. Lebowitz reported the actions of Randall, as above-described, to Redfearn-Neswick because she reasonably believed that Randall's conduct was intentional, improper, unsafe, prohibited by school and/or school district policy and violated Pennsylvania's Child Protective Services Law ("CPSL"), 23 Pa.C.S. Section 6301 et seq. in that it was committed with disregard of a substantial and unjustifiable risk of physical and emotional harm to the student.

23. However, at no time following Lebowitz' report of Randall's conduct did Defendants report Randall's actions to any governmental department or authority, as required by the CPSL.

24. In a meeting the next day, October 15, 2009, attended by, among others, Lebowitz, Garner and a lawyer representing Defendants Tacony and Santilli and Thompson, Lebowitz reiterated her belief that Tacony was not in compliance with the law regarding IEP's. Lebowitz was told, among other things, that that she "did not need to access IEP's," when in fact, she did. Lebowitz was also told (on that date or shortly thereafter) that Randall's conduct was not "reportable."

25. In a meeting on October 20, 2009, during which Lebowitz thought she would be given the opportunity to discuss her concerns, Cruise told Lebowitz that she was "not a good fit."

26. In a meeting with Cruise the next day, October 21, 2009, Cruise encouraged Lebowitz to sign a "severance" agreement, but told her whether she signed it or not, her last day of employment was October 23, 2009.

27. Based upon information, observation and belief, Cruise and Gerald Santilli, in conspiracy with each other and other Defendants, were instrumental in the decision to terminate Lebowitz' employment and unduly influenced Tacony's Board of Directors to approve the termination.

28. On or about November 6, 2009, Lebowitz received a Notice of Termination letter dated October 30, 2009 and a memorandum of suspension dated October 30, 2009, which stated, for the first time, that the reason for Lebowitz' termination was "unsuccessful completion of a probationary period."

28. The reason given to Lebowitz by Defendants for her termination was not the real reason, but rather was a pretext and cover-up of the wrongdoing on the part of Randall, in part, in order not to jeopardize a significant funding source, and to protect themselves from potential lawsuits and civil penalties.

29. Defendants Cruise and Gerald Santilli, and Defendants Tacony and Santilli and Thompson, by and through their directors, officers, trustees, board members, employees and/or agents, acted in concert with and reached an agreement with each other to terminate Lebowitz' employment, in furtherance of Defendants' policy, practice, and/or custom of covering up acts of wrongdoing, such as above-described, and/or retaliating against individuals who report such wrongdoing to avoid potential legal or other consequences, said actions causing economic and emotional harm to Lebowitz.

30. Defendants' conduct was motivated by evil motive and/or intent and/or reckless and callous indifference to Lebowitz' federally and statutorily protected rights.

COUNT I
42 U.S.C. SECTION 1983
VIOLATION OF PLAINTIFF'S FIRST AMENDMENT
RIGHT TO FREE SPEECH

31. Lebowitz incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 30 of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

32. At all times relevant hereto, Lebowitz' placement in Defendant Tacony's Charter School was a governmental benefit and/or privilege, the deprivation of which triggers First Amendment scrutiny.

33. At all times relevant hereto, the relationship between Defendants Tacony and Santilli and Thompson, contractual or otherwise, was sufficiently close that the conduct of both Defendants, acting by and through their directors, officers, trustees, officials, agents and/or employees, including Defendants Cruise and Gerald Santilli, acting within the scope of their employment, deprived Lebowitz of her constitutional rights.

34. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant Santilli and Thompson, by and through its directors, officers, trustees, officials, agents and/or employees, including Defendant Gerald Santilli, was clothed with and, in conspiracy with Defendant Tacony, by and through its directors, officers, trustees, officials, agents and/or employees, including Defendants Gerald Santilli, acted under the color and authority of state law in that Defendants exercised coercive power and/or provided significant encouragement to each other so that Defendants actions are fairly attributable to the State.

35. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants acted in accordance with their policy, practice and/or custom and/or ratified, by silence or otherwise, the unconstitutional acts of their subordinates, which directly caused constitutional harm to Lebowitz.

36. At all times relevant hereto, Lebowitz engaged in speech that was protected under the First Amendment of the United States Constitution as the speech involved matters of significant public concern, to wit, the physical and emotional safety and well-being of public school children and a public charter school's compliance with federal and state laws that protect public school children.

37. Lebowitz' interest in her protected speech outweighs any countervailing interest on the part of Defendants, collectively and/or individually, in the effective or efficient operations of their businesses and/or institutions.

38. The protected speech was a substantial and/or motivating factor in Lebowitz being terminated from her employment, which was retaliatory in nature and constituted an adverse employment action and a deliberate indifference to the constitutional rights of the Lebowitz.

39. As a result of the retaliatory acts by the Defendants as above-described, Lebowitz has been denied constitutionally and statutorily protected rights and has suffered economic and emotional damages.

WHEREFORE, Lebowitz respectfully requests this Court enter judgment in her favor and against Defendants, jointly and/or severally, as follows:

- a. For compensatory damages, including but not limited to back pay, front pay, actual damages, damages for personal humiliation, harm to reputation, pain and suffering and emotional distress and mental anguish;
- b. For injunctive relief in the form of reinstatement;
- c. For punitive damages;

- d. For the costs of suit, reasonable attorneys' fees and interest;
- e. For such other legal or equitable relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT II
42 U.S.C. SECTION 1983
FIRST AMENDMENT RETALIATION AND CONSPIRACY CLAIMS

40. Lebowitz incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 39 of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

41. Lebowitz was engaged in protected activity under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, as above-described.

42. Acting under color of state law, Defendants conspired to and did deprive Lebowitz, in furtherance of the conspiracy, of her rights, privileges and/or immunities secured by the United States Constitution and laws by discharging her from her employment in retaliation for her reporting: (a) the above-described act of wrongdoing on the part of Randall, said report being of suspected child abuse under Pennsylvania's Child Protective Services Law (CPSL"), 23 Pa. C. S. Section 630 et seq.; and (b) her reasonable belief that Defendants were not in compliance with the IDEA with respect to students' IEP's.

43. Defendants engaged in a conspiratorial, intentional cover-up of the wrongdoing on the part of Randall and the non-compliance issues reported by Lebowitz in that the Defendants concealed and suppressed the true facts surrounding the reported instances of wrongdoing to protect themselves, in part, from potential lawsuits and civil penalties.

44. Defendants participated in the cover-up also to avoid losing a significant funding source.

45. There is a causal link between Lebowitz' protected activity and her termination, which constituted an adverse employment action, and which was pretextual and retaliatory in nature.

46. The protected activity was a substantial and/or motivating factor in Lebowitz' termination.

47. As a result of the conspiracy and retaliatory acts by Defendants, Lebowitz has been denied constitutionally and statutorily protected rights and has suffered economic and emotional damages.

WHEREFORE, Lebowitz respectfully requests this Court enter judgment in her favor and against Defendants, jointly and/or severally, as follows:

- a. For compensatory damages, including but not limited to back pay, front pay, actual damages, damages for personal humiliation, harm to reputation, pain and suffering and emotional distress and mental anguish;
- b. For injunctive relief in the form of reinstatement;
- c. For punitive damages (except against Defendant Tacony);
- d. For the costs of suit, reasonable attorney's fees and interest;
- e. For such other legal or equitable relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT III
VIOLATION OF PENNSYLVANIA WHISTLEBLOWER LAW
(43 P.S. Section 1421 et seq.)

48. Lebowitz incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 47 of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

49. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant Tacony was a public body under the Whistleblower Law because it received funds by or through the Commonwealth and/or a political subdivision authority.

50. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants Tacony and Santilli and Thompson, by and through their directors, trustees, officers, employees and/or agents, and Defendants Cruise and Gerald Santilli, were employers under the Whistleblower Law because they supervised Lebowitz.

51. At all times relevant hereto, Lebowitz was an employee under the Whistleblower Law, 43 P.S. Section 1421 et seq., because she performed services for wages under a contract of hire for a public body.

52. The actions and/or inactions on the part of the Defendants, as above-described, constitute wrongdoing under the Whistleblower Law, in particular, but not limited to, a violation of the CPSL and the IDEA.

53. The actions on the part of the Defendants, as above-described, violated the Whistleblower Law because they presented substantial and significant danger to the public health and/or safety, and were likely to cause imminent risk of physical and/or emotional harm, in particular, to the students who were under the care and supervision of Defendants.

54. Lebowitz' discharge from her employment in retaliation for making a good faith report of suspected child abuse in accordance with the CPSL and for reporting non-compliance with IEP's constitutes a violation of the Whistleblower Act.

55. As a result of the retaliatory acts by the Defendants, Lebowitz has suffered economic and emotional damages.

WHEREFORE, Lebowitz respectfully requests this Court enter judgment in her favor and against Defendants, jointly and/or severally, as follows:

- a. For compensatory damages, including but not limited to back pay, front pay, actual damages, damages for personal humiliation, harm to reputation, pain and suffering and emotional distress and mental anguish;

- b. For the costs of suit, reasonable attorneys' fees and interest;
- c. For applicable civil fines under the Whistleblower Law;
- d. For such other legal or equitable relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT IV
VIOLATION OF PENNSYLVANIA CHILD PROTECTIVE SERVICES LAW
(23 Pa.C.S. Section 6301 et seq.)

56. Lebowitz incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 55 of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

57. At all times relevant hereto, Lebowitz was a "school employee" as defined under the CPSL, acting in the course and scope of her duties as an employee of Defendants.

58. At all times relevant hereto, Lebowitz was a mandated reporter under the CPSL who made a good faith report of an incident of suspected child abuse observed by her in the hallway of the school.

59. Defendants, after receiving the above-referenced report from Lebowitz, failed in their duties, responsibilities and legal obligations under the CPSL to report or cause a report to be made to a department or authority in accordance with the CPSL.

60. Lebowitz' discharge from her employment in retaliation for making a good faith report of suspected child abuse constitutes a violation of the CPSL and resulted in economic and emotional damages.

WHEREFORE, Lebowitz respectfully requests this Court enter judgment in her favor and against Defendants, jointly and/or severally, as follows:

- a. For compensatory damages, including but not limited to back pay, front pay, actual damages, damages for personal humiliation, harm to reputation, pain and suffering and emotional distress and mental anguish;
- b. For punitive damages (except against Defendant Tacony);
- c. For the costs of suit, reasonable attorneys' fees and interest;
- d. For such other legal or equitable relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT V
COMMON LAW CIVIL CONSPIRACY

61. Lebowitz incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 60 of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein as though fully set forth herein.

62. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants acted with a common purpose to do an unlawful act, or a lawful act by unlawful means, to wit, terminating Lebowitz in retaliation for her reports of wrongdoing on the part of Defendants.

63. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants acted with evil motive and an intent to injure Lebowitz without legal justification.

64. Defendants' acts were done in pursuance of a common purpose or design and resulted in legal damages to the Lebowitz.

WHEREFORE, Lebowitz respectfully requests this Court enter judgment in her favor and against Defendants, jointly and/or severally, as follows:

- a. For compensatory damages, including but not limited to back pay, front pay, actual damages, damages for personal humiliation, harm to reputation, pain and suffering and emotional distress and mental anguish;
- b. For punitive damages (except against Defendant Tacony);
- c. For the costs of suit, reasonable attorneys' fees and interest;
- d. For such other legal or equitable relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
